SW INDIANA LAWMAKERS RECEIVE INTERIM STUDY COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

INDIANAPOLIS – Lawmakers representing Southwest Indiana have received a series of assignments to serve on study committees in the interim between sessions of the Indiana General Assembly.

"These committees serve as the starting point for studying the issues that form the backbone of a legislative session," said Indiana House Democrat Leader B. Patrick Bauer from South Bend. "I am pleased we will be able to use the diverse expertise provided by our Southwest Indiana delegation to enact sound public policy for the people of this state."

Here are the assignments for area House Democrats:

State Rep. Dennis Avery (D-Evansville) will be a member of the State Budget Committee, the New Harmony Commission and the Evansville State Hospital Advisory Committee.

State Rep. Dave Crooks (D-Washington) will serve on the Military Base Planning Council, the Regulatory Flexibility Committee and the Tobacco Farmers and Rural Community Impact Fund Advisory Board.

State Rep. Jerry Denbo (D-French Lick) will be a member of the Administrative Rules Oversight Committee, the Tourism Council, the Regulatory Flexibility Committee, and the Military Base Planning Council.

State Rep. Phil Hoy (D-Evansville) will be a member of the Air Pollution Compliance Advisory Panel, the Evansville State Hospital Advisory Committee and the New Harmony Commission.

State Rep. Dennie Oxley (D-English) will serve on the Indiana Commission on Autism and the Water Resources Study Committee.

State Rep. Russ Stilwell (D-Boonville) will be a member of the Legislative Council and the Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission.

State Rep. Trent Van Haaften (D-Mount Vernon) will serve on the Code Revision Commission, the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, the Interim Study Committee on Eminent Domain, the New Harmony Commission and the Evansville State Hospital Advisory Committee.
